Nestled in the serene village of Daajing Giids, Haida Gwaii, this oceanfront home on Graham Island offers world-class views and modern comforts. Custom-built in 2017, the home features a 20-foot wall of Argon gas-infused double-pane windows, trimmed with local yellow cedar, providing breathtaking views of marine wildlife, migrating birds, and native eagles. The 1,932 sq. ft. open floor plan design immerses you in nature, with the second floor offering a spacious main bedroom, custom fir hardwood flooring, and a two-piece ensuite, all framed by a stunning glass and red cedar “pony wall” that captures the southern views.

The main floor exudes warmth and elegance with heated marble-tiled entrance flooring, bamboo hardwood throughout, and custom pine stairs with inset lighting. The kitchen is a chef’s dream, featuring local alder wood cabinets, stainless steel appliances, and live edge yellow cedar countertops, making it both spacious and functional. The “Deluxe” four-piece bathroom is a luxurious retreat, boasting a deep oval soaker tub, a glass-pane corner rain shower, and custom alder interior doors. Additional features include a versatile open room, a separate

The outdoor space is equally impressive, with a tinted Suntuff-covered cedar sundeck providing extra outdoor living space, perfect for enjoying the serene oceanfront setting. The property is thoughtfully designed for convenience, offering ample parking, RV services, and a fully fenced yard that ensures privacy and security. A cedar sauna space off the main deck and planter boxes for gardening add to the home’s appeal, making it ideal for relaxation and outdoor living. Additionally, the property includes a relatively unused 10x18 ft. custom cabin, available for an extra $50,000, which can be moved if not required.
