DESCRIPTION

Boasting nearly 590 acres of deeded undulating pasture, sprawled across 5 separate titles, and nestled alongside Green Lake Provincial Park, this very rare ranching opportunity will take your breath away.

What began as a small operation with about 30 young heifers has blossomed into an impressive organic meat business that supports, on average, 300 animals. In existence for over 30 years, this ranch has been meticulously designed and crafted what is now a well-established and renowned ranch in one of the most scenic locations in the interior of British Columbia. In addition to being one of BC's premier ranching operations, the XH Buffalo Ranch gained world-wide notoriety in 2015 when it supplied genuine buffalo skulls and hides that were used in the Academy Award winning epic "The Revenant" which was filmed in Alberta.

At the heart of the ranch is a bold and beautiful log residence. With rustic elegance and a charming interior design this 4,341 square foot home is a sight to behold. Featuring 7 sizable bedrooms, and what could easily be converted to a lower-level secondary suite for ranch hands, or to be used to house family and friends. Its imposing yet comforting aesthetic is entirely reminiscent of a country western movie, as it stares out over the farmyard and surrounding pastures and animals offering one-of-a-kind views that take you back to a time when Bison roamed freely across North America.

In addition to the main residence, the property is dotted with farm related outbuildings, each with their own purpose and utility. Covered storage is never hard to find, and 2 additional log cabins, one of which is move in ready, add to the appeal and functionality of the ranch. To further add utility and value to the property, the sellers constructed a hide tanning shop where the owners masterfully prepare hides and skulls for individual purchase.

A huge draw to raising Bison, other than the love of the animals and lifestyle, is for the meat. The Canadian Bison Association recommends bison meat as a healthy and natural alternative to beef. As well as being a natural red meat, buffalo meat is low in fat, low in cholesterol, and high in protein. No antibiotics, chemicals or growth hormones are used in raising XH buffalo.

AREA DATA

The Interlakes, also known as the Interlakes District, is a geographic region of the Interior of British Columbia located along and around the Interlakes Highway between 100 Mile House on Highway 97 and Little Fort on the North Thompson River. The area is a subregion of the Cariboo and includes the communities of Bridge Lake and Lac des Roches.

Provincial billboards promoting the area show it as being bounded by Canim Lake, Lac des Roches, Young Lake and Green Lake, with Highway 97

(the Cariboo Highway) and Canim Lake Road as its western and northwestern limits. The area contains over 1,600 households, most of which are spread along the Highway 24 corridor from Lone Butte to Bridge Lake. Another interpretation from the Cariboo Regional District includes Sheridan Lake and Deka Lake.

RECREATION

XH Buffalo Ranch falls within the Interlakes region and is a popular destination for fishermen and anglers looking to take advantage of the renowned trout fishing throughout the area.
